Rebecca Stevens (Chair)
Anne Dailey
Brian Spears

Bill Adams
Nick Zilka
Jeri DeLange (Note Taker)

This summary provides the salient issues. These notes are intended to capture key topics, conclusions, and next steps and not the nuances of the discussion.

Agenda Items: None

Round Table:

Jeri DeLange - Reported that both the Communications PFT and Recreation Education Subcommittee (RES) would be meeting today. DeLange will provide an update of the PFT and RES meetings to the Lower Basin PFT on March 11 to get their input and feedback.

Anne Dailey - Announced that the draft Focused Feasibility Study (FFS) comment period was extended and will close on March 5th. She thanked everyone for their involvement. Dailey indicated that she had previously asked for input from the agencies and counties by March 12 to prepare for EPA's Remedy Review Board since EPA has to send information to the Board by March 26.

Rebecca Stevens: Expressed appreciation to the EPA for extending the date for written recommendations on the FFS.

Bill Adams: Said that he has been working with Dailey to prepare information for the Remedy Review Board, and the five-year review plan. He appreciates everyone's participation at the Upper Basin PFT meeting last week. As new information develops, it will be shared with the Basin Environmental Monitoring Plan (BEMP). He also noted that there will be a couple of monitoring well reductions in OU-2.

Nick Zilka: Mentioned that he has been working on reviewing the five-year plan as well as other information on the FFS, etc.

Brian Spears: Nothing to report.

Rebecca Stevens: Reminded TLG members about: 1) the Lower Basin PFT meeting on March 11; and 2) that comments are due on the Lake monitoring report by April 1. For informational purposes, she mentioned that there is an annexation request coming up in Harrison. (TLG members discussed if there may possible impacts regarding this issue). She also brought up scheduling the next TLG meeting for April 8.

Schedule: The next TLG meeting conference call is scheduled for 3/18/10.

Thank you for your participation.
